

Workshops and Consulting for a
More Connected Classroom Culture

OVERVIEW

The Positive Connection Initiative (PCI) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit dedicated to advancing human connection through practical, research-informed communication skills training.

OUR SIGNATURE WORKSHOP

This interactive, two-hour professional development session uses role-play and group discussion to cultivate skills in:

- Active Listening, Empathy, and Curious Inquiry
- De-escalation, Emotional Awareness, and Boundary-Setting
- Collaborative Reflection and Implementation Planning

PROVEN IMPACT

Over 1,400 college students have completed programs created by the PCI team to date (New York Times), and the transition to high school settings has been met with enthusiastic praise:

“Hands-down the most impactful presentation I have heard in my 25 years as an educator... Bill's approach has the capability of transforming the education model.”
— Tom, Former Dean of Students

“This is the most engaged I have ever, I mean ever, seen our faculty. Role playing as students helped us truly see things from their point of view. It was real, it was relevant, and it was unforgettable.”
— Daniel, Teacher

BRING PCI TO YOUR SCHOOL

Bespoke workshops available (currently free of charge) for:

- Faculty
- Staff
- Administration
- Students

Contact us at pci@connection.net or visit www.connection.net